LIST OF FIGURES*

SECTION I

Figure 1.1: Operators Are Extending Beyond Their Traditional Businesses ............... 5
Figure 1.2: TV Creation & Distribution Revenue Models ........................................... 6
Figure 1.3: TV Industry Revenues (Total: >$130 Billion) ....................................... 7

SECTION II

Figure 2.1: Telco Positioning in the Pay TV Value Chain ........................................ 12
Figure 2.2: VOD Revenue Splits ............................................................................. 13
Figure 2.3: Broadcast Network 30-second Ad Rates ............................................... 16
Figure 2.4: Advertising Revenues, Broadcast vs. Cable .......................................... 18
Figure 2.5: Movie Studio Release Windows ............................................................. 19
Figure 2.6: Big Six Media Conglomerate Holdings .................................................. 20
Figure 2.7: The Advertising Value Chain ................................................................ 23

SECTION III

Figure 3.1: Primetime Ratings (Viewers 18-49), Broadcast vs. Cable ....................... 25
Figure 3.2: Downstream Pressure for Price Increases in the TV Industry .................. 27
Figure 3.3: Independent Players Being Squeezed Out of the Pay TV Value Chain ...... 28

SECTION IV

Figure 4.1: The Impact of New Technology on the Value Chain ............................... 30
Figure 4.2: The Impact of Internet Video on the Value Chain .................................... 31
Figure 4.3: Vulnerability of Content to Time-shifting .............................................. 32
Figure 4.4: The Impact of DVR on the Value Chain ............................................... 33
Figure 4.5: The Evolving Home Device Ecosystem ................................................... 34
Figure 4.6: The Impact of IPTV & Bundling on the Value Chain .............................. 37

SECTION V

SECTION VI

Figure 6.1: YouTube Traffic vs. Other Video Sites (Page Views per Million) .......... 48
Figure 6.2: YouTube Partnerships With Traditional Media Companies ................. 49

SECTION VII

Figure 7.1: Fastweb IPTV ARPU vs. Competitors ................................................. 50
Figure 7.2: PCCW Application Roadmap ................................................................. 51
Figure 7.3: Verizon Anticipates High-bandwidth Services for the Mass Market ....... 52

* All charts and figures in this report are original to Heavy Reading, unless otherwise noted.